

Glendale Optometric Center

Stacey T. Gin - O.D., Duane deCroupet - O.D., Carl S. Shibata - M.D.

Summer 2009 Newsletter

GLENDALE

Optometric Center

308 East Broadway
Glendale, CA 91205
(818) 243-1300

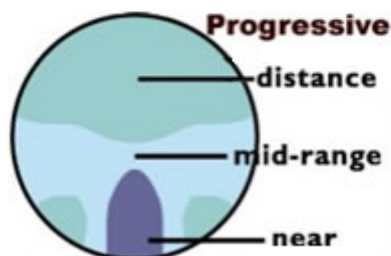

Transitions

Healthy sight in every light™

Lens Features & Benefits

Lens Type	Features	Benefits	Recommended For
AR lenses	Reduce glare Seem "invisible" Eliminate halos Eliminate ghost images Eliminate "gray" shadow of clear lenses Higher light transmission	See better, look better More comfortable vision Improve vision	Driving at night Refractive surgery patients Patients with high-index lenses Computer users Senior citizens
High-index lenses	Lighter Thinner lenses Scratch-resistant	Comfortable to wear Look better	Patients with high prescriptions Patients with thick eyeglasses
Photochromic lenses	Adjust to light conditions Block UV rays Also available in polarized	More comfortable vision Convenient protection from sun Increase comfort Combines benefits of lens options	Patients who are light sensitive Children General purpose indoor/outdoor use Patients who drive, fish hunt, ski or spend a lot of time outdoors
Polarized lenses	Eliminate all types of glare Enhance contrast Provide UV protection	Improve vision More comfortable vision Improve safety	Driving Outdoor activity where glare is an issue
Polycarbonate and Trivex lenses	Good impact resistance Scratch-resistance Thin Light	Protect from injuries Look better More comfortable	Children Sports enthusiasts Whenever safety is a concern
Progressive lenses	No-line bifocals provide natural vision at all distances	Improve vision at all distances Improve appearance	Presbyopes (40s +) Children who need bifocals
Scratch-resistant lenses	Increase durability Minimize abrasions	Last longer Better vision by not having to see through scratches	Children

Our on-site optical lab provides fast, efficient services at a reasonable price. Our opticians can tint your lenses and check your glasses to make sure they are UV protected.

