Exciting News and Updates at the Office!!!

We are pleased to welcome Dr. Diana Ciobanu to Glendale Optometric Center. Dr. Ciobanu started with us in July and is a wonderful asset to our office. She was born and raised in Suceava, Romania and moved to New York City as a teenager. She completed her undergraduate work at the University of Connecticut and graduated pre-med with a bachelor's degree in Nutritional Sciences. At Uconn, she served as an ambassador to the school and her humanitarian and classroom work yielded academic achievement awards and bid her membership to the Phi Sigma Pi National Honors Fraternity. Dr. Ciobanu continued her education at the New England College of Optometry where she received her Doctorate of Optometry. She is certified in diagnostic and therapeutic medical privileges both in California and New York. She is a member of the Lions Club, the American Optometric Association and the California Optometric Association. In her free time, she enjoys traveling the world.

It is a pleasure to welcome Dr. Ciobanu to our office and we hope you enjoy her as much as we do!

We are pleased to announce that we are now in the process of becoming Eye Med paneled providers. We hope to be paneled by mid August. We know many of our patients have had to switch to Eye Med and we are hoping to accommodate and retain as many of our patients as we can. If you have any questions about this you can give our office a call.
